Commonwealth vs. John Jones vs. James Heian, James Webster, etc. Bail of each in $100 for six months.

DEATH OF FRANCIS M. ATKINSON.—Captain Atkinson, the Superintendent of the Western Fire Company, was seriously ill about a week ago, by the occurrence of a severe neuralgia, while running to a fire, near the corner of High-street and Broadway. It was hoped at the time that his injuries would not prove fatal, but after enduring a series of the most intense suffering, in Captain Atkinson's death the Fire Department has lost one of its most active and efficient members. The deceased was universally respected, and his loss will be deeply mourned.

A PARADE PROPOSED.—Mr. Isaac Coffey, of Green county, who is a member of Col. Bramlette's regiment, and was taken prisoner on the 13th December last, near the Sulphur Well, on the line of Metcalfe county, was paroled at Salisbury, North Carolina, on the 22d ult., and reached our city this morning. He was taken by Captain Walker, of the Texas rangers, and sent to Nashville with Colonel Fennell and Willis Thompson, of Green county, where they were lodges in jail. He was subsequently removed to Salisbury, where there were 207 in one room of a factory. When paroled, Mr. Coffey was sent to General Burnside and transported to New York. He was induced to the New England Relief Society in that city for the kindest attention, and Danville was most liberally provided for by the citizens.

Mr. Coffey left at Salisbury a number of citizens of Kentucky, who had been arrested by the rebels as Home Guards. Among them were Mr. Monroe of Berlin, county, Wm. Thompson of Green, Jonathan Williams, ex-Sheriff of Laurel county, and his son-in-law, E. McFalls, three brothers of Russell county, Joe Barber of Metcalfe, Mr. Stockton of Clinton, and Mr. Buchanan of Palatka. They were all well, though had suffered many discomforts from want of exercise and confined apartments.

MISCELLANEOUS.—It appears by the Auditor's Report, submitted to the State Convention on Monday, that the whole amount of Defense Warrants issued for the payment of the Missouri Militia is $72,000. In all the counties, where the revenue has been collected, these Warrants have been paid to Sheriffs for taxes. For the purpose of appreciating them to par, the Auditor commands that they be made receivable, and for the taxes of 1863, and payable from late Collectors who are in default for the taxes of 1860. The Auditor reports that out of the 119 counties in the State, only 41 have received for the tax books of 1861; and the taxes collected in those counties are only $253,386. To this must be added Dran Shop Licenses ($23,294) collected in St. Louis county; and Assurance Agency Licensed ($2,742) received in the same county—making a total of receipts into the State Treasury of $297,431, while the remaining counties paid only $47,394. The amount of Defense Warrants paid into the Treasury for taxes is $41,265. On the subject of the debt of the State the Report is silent.

ODD FELLOWSHIP IN INDIANA.—There are two hundred and one lodges in Indiana, and sixty-one in the State, the former comprising a membership of 5,328, and the latter 1,675.

FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1862.

Events at and near Corinth.—Undoubtedly a good deal of disappointment was felt by many of our friends when they learned that, in spite of all the precautions taken by Gen. Hallock, the rebel army had escaped from Corinth. The escape, to be sure, was regarded as conclusive evidence that the rebel forces were in such a condition of demoralization that their leaders, even with all the advantages of their immense fortifications, did not dare to risk a battle, man for man, yet still much regret was felt that Gen. Halleck had not been able to force either a general engagement or a general surrender, thus ending the war in that section by a single overwhelming blow. The simple evacuation and retreat did not by any means satisfy loyal expectations.

But better news, inspiring news, has since come from that quarter. Great and important suits have been achieved in the pursuit of the fleeing forces of the enemy. Gen. Pope, at the head of 10,000 men, was in full pursuit at the last days, reporting already 10,000 prisoners and deserters, 15,000 stand of arms, nine locomotives and several trains captured, while thousands of the rebels were throwing away their weapons, and Beauregard in his despair was hiding his men save themselves in whatever way they could. The demoralization was complete, and we may expect to hear of the capture of thousands of additional prisoners, stands of arms, &c., if not the surrender of the rebels in the Pittsburg battle, will much oblige his friends by giving information as soon as possible. AN early morning the whereabouts of THOMAS A. COLEY, the son of the late Senator from Cap. John A. Adams's company of the 4th Kentucky Cavalry, who was captured at the battle of Perryville in the Pittsburg battle, will much oblige his friends by giving information as soon as possible. DR. J. C. The POSITION HELD BY OPEN, CORINTH.—The Commodore Porter’s mortar fleet was at anchor off Ship Island, 21st inst., awaiting orders to proceed to Mobile, to join the blockade; and, upon arrival, to open fire on the fort, preparatory to an attack upon Fort Morgan. I was anticipated that the conflict would be long and terrific, as the means of operations would necessarily be the open roadstead—which is thoughtfully under the command of the Fort, and within range of its fire. No doubt, however, was expressed as to the final result, and the capture of the fort would be but a matter of time.

(Captain I. B. Webster, of the Tenth Kentucky Infantry, who has been ill in this city for several weeks, and who is not yet fully restored for health, although convalescent, will join his regiment at no later date. Any letters for persons connected with the regiment will be conveyed to Corinth by him, if left at Webster’s drugstore gallery, or at this office, previous to the time of his departure, on Wednesday or Thursday next.)

Eighty-five bales of cotton, valued at ten thousand dollars, belonging to James Trabue, of this city, were captured on Sunday last by a detachment of cavalry under Captain Mill, now Perry, Tennessee. The cotton had been stored on the farm of a citizen named Higgins, Mr. R. having been instructed to dispose of it. As Mr. Trabue’s sympathies were with the rebels, it was thought best to confiscate the cotton, which was sent to the Tennessee river for shipment.

THEATRE.—BENEFIT OF MISS DORA SHAW.—The beautiful play of Imogen and the very excellent drama of As You Like It, the Little Devil’s Share, will be produced this evening, Miss Shaw performing in both pieces, and sustaining the character of Portia and Cato, on the occasion of her benefit. Her friends have been accustomed to fill her houses on such occasions, and with such an excellent host as she now presents, the caston will be adhered to, without doubt.

Mr. James Trabue, an old merchant of this city, who has recently returned from the South, and who is supposed to entertain rebel sympathies, was placed in the military prison yesterday upon his refusal to take the oath of allegiance. Mr. L. L. Hyatt, who returned from the South on Wednesday, appeared and took the oath voluntarily, and gave bond for its due observance.

THE POLICE BILL.—There was a prolonged discussion in the two boards of the General Council last evening upon the police ordinance, which resulted in the passage of the bill to make the police of the city elective by the General Council. The two boards adjourned to meet on Thursday evening next in joint session for the election of the city treasurer.

THE GREAT WORLD CIRCUS.—We have never seen anything in the circus line equal upon a variety with that of the exhibition of the Antonio Brothers. The clown is the very life of the circus and Bob Smith is the funniest man we have ever seen upon sawdust. There will be another exhibition of the Parthenon and Carlo, on the occasion of their benefit.

SALE OF CONFISCATED GUNS.—United States Marshal Sneed sold yesterday a quantity of goods to the value of six thousand dollars, for account of the Government, which had been declared contraband. Among the articles sold were forty-two bags Rio coffee at 20¢ 23¢ per lb., and three cases bacon at 2¢ 32¢ per lb. The sale will be continued to-day.

INSTALLATION.—The Rev. Thomas S. Crow was installed pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Jeffersonville, Indiana, on the 1st of May. Rev. J. L. Matthews, of Charlestown, presided at the service. Rev. S. S. Potter, of New Albany, delivered the charge to the pastor, and Rev. S. E. Bar, of Linton, the charge to the congregation.

Mrs. Bessie Neal, of Salem Massachusetts, a dear little witch, who has not reached her teens, had a malignant fair lately, at which she collected thirteen dollars for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers. The money has been received by Mr. J. Smith Speed, and will be appropriately applied.

We learn from the New Albany Ledger that in a picket skirmish, some weeks since, near Corinth, James Adams, Company D, Fifty-third Indiana, was mortally wounded by a bullet in the abdomen. The rifle was taken from his hand, and after being carried to the rear, he died.

Edwin Booth, now in Paris, is hourly engaged just at present in searching out and examining pictures and costumes of Cardinal Richelieu and his time, with a view of producing his return to America. “Richelieu” in a perfectly correct style, so far as the dresses and “appointments” are concerned.

We regret to learn that, owing to severe illness, Capt. Wellington Harlan, of the Fourth Kentucky Infantry, has been compelled to resign his command. Capt. Harlan was unfeeling laurels at the battle of Mill Springs.

Columbus was killed near Jessup, Ky., on the 27th ult., a sled-load of wheat having been overturned, the contents falling upon him and crushing him.

The story of three men going over Niagara Falls last Sunday proves to be a hoax. A large log was seen to go that morning, and hence the “Hoax” of circumstances.

THE GREAT BATTLE BEFORE RICHMOND—THE GREAT VICTORY OF OUR FORCES ON SUNDAY.

SUNDAY, A. M., June 1, 1862.

A battle was fought at about 10 o’clock, to the west of the town of Richmond, when they should get it beyond the protection of the gunboats.

On the advantage of a sudden movement against the rebels, the line of battle was given.

After a temporary success, the final result has not been such as to afford encouragement to their dispositions and demoralized troops or cause us to give up the ultimate possession of the rebel capital.

The attack was made upon our forces, on Saturday, the 30th, in the vicinity of the Chickahominy, whence the advance was held by the rebels.

ing his troops across the Chickahominy, and was engaged on the right bank of the river. On Saturday, when he had been lost, after several days of labor, Gen. Sumner had thrown two bridges across the creek between Bottom’s Bridge and New Market, where he reported to support the superstructure. One of these bridges was some two miles above Bottom’s Bridge, the other near Carter’s Station. The town of New Market was buried away during the heavy storm of Friday night, and Gen. Sumner was obliged to depend upon single supply to support the superstructure. The article, “FERRY DAVIS’S VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER,” needs no introduction, everybody knows it, the soldiers know it, and you have only to keep it in stock. No remedy is more efficacious in removing Diseases, Cramps, Dysentery, Coughs, Cold, Sore Wounds, Ulcers, etc., and other ailments incident to a soldier’s life. It is light and convenient to carry, and can be resorted to, on the march as well as in camp, without trouble. Being used both internally and externally, its value cannot be overestimated—in fact, the soldiers went it and must have it, and keep such an article is the duty of every ruler. It is sold at 40¢ per box.

CHARGE.—Bitter demand—Sales of 50 boxes new West.

DRUGS.—Linen dressings, 10¢ per box.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

ADVISERS AT COUNCIL.—We clip the following from the letter of the correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, dated Corinth, May 30th:

Capt. Green has depicted himself as a brave man and a patriot, and he is entitled to the fullest confidence of the whole Union party.

A CITIZEN.

(For the Louisville Journal.)

A UNION MEETING IN OWEN COUNTY.

The Unionists of the Union were convened at Kevil, on the 25th and 26th inst., to consider the conduct of the rebel workmen. It is an urgent duty of these men to help us in our cause by occupying the fortifications of the rebels. General Grant at 11, A.M. on Friday, addressed a meeting of the rebels at Michelin's speech which was intended to dissuade them from really fighting. But such was not the case. I admire the single-handed efforts of Capt. Green, and these were actually less formidable than those thrown up by our forces last night, after occupying a camp of ours.

Revolting. The rebel, secessionist, nor sympathizer with rebellion, should be elected to any office. It is evident that such men seek position at the expense of the country.

The Navy Yard was completely destroyed, and 800 tons of coal is still burning.
